Crime reports soar across Vale district

MORE than 1,000 people crowded into Abingdon's Market Place on Sunday to witness the story of Jesus Christ's death.

The town held its second passion play after the first in 2013 proved a huge hit.

Actors and choirs re-enacted the final days of Jesus in the town centre before his death and resurrection, with High Street closed to the public to make way for the production.

NEW figures have shown a dramatic increase in the number of crimes being reported across the Vale of White Horse district in recent years, including rape, domestic abuse and burglaries.

Details published last week by the Community Safety Partnership also revealed that cases of anti-social behaviour were higher in Abingdon than in surrounding towns.

The Vale district has seen a 43 per cent increase in the number of domestic abuse incidents being reported to police between 2013 and 2015, more than double the increase shown across the Thames Valley force area.

Vale of White Horse district councillor Sandy Lovatt, who is responsible for community safety, said: "[The figures] are still pretty low compared to places like Reading, Slough and Oxford city. In general, Vale is still a low-crime area."

The figures were presented to Vale of White Horse District Council's joint scrutiny committee last Thursday which was attended by the South and Vale Local Police Area Commander Rory Freeman.

Councillors were also presented with a report written by council officers that gave a case study of a domestic abuse incident in the area.

Domestic abuse in the Vale has increased from 352 reported incidents in 2012/13 to 472 incidents in 2014/15, a rise of 43 per cent - this equates to 3.82 crimes reported to police per 1,000 population.

Across the Thames Valley area, domestic abuse increased by 20 per cent from 10,266 incidents to 12,760 in the same period.

Incidents of rape and sexual offences also increased across the Vale district from 68 cases in 2012/13 to 128 cases in 2014/15 - a 48 per cent rise.

South Oxfordshire also showed an increase in reports from 55 to 111 incidents - a 40.5 per cent rise.

Director of the Oxfordshire Sexual Abuse and Rape Crisis Centre Lisa Ward, based in Bicester, said: "Locally we've seen a steady and significant increase in rapes and other sexual offences being reported to the police in recent years.

Charity cuts help offered to adults

By Loughlan Campbell

A NON-PROFIT support charity is ending its help for adult carers this May due to a lack of funding, it was announced yesterday.

Harwell-based South and Vale Carers, which was formed 21 years ago in Didcot, is a support charity which helps unpaid carers of all ages with advice and support across the South Oxfordshire and the Vale of White Horse districts.

However, following a reduction in the level of fundraising to the service, South and Vale Carers will be dropping its support for more than 700 adult carers - those aged 18-plus - from May 31.

The charity said the 'extremely difficult' decision was made in light of the implementation of the Care Act 2014, which placed increased responsibilities on Oxfordshire County Council to provide the work that South and Vale Carers did, meaning that its service was effectively duplicating that of the local authority's work.

Carers centre manager John Tabor said: "When we realised we were losing funding, we needed to make an extremely difficult decision.

"Our trustees that have been with us for a long time really struggled over this, but in the end we thought we will help channel our funding into helping young carers.

"Some of them are as young as five and it's our duty to give these carers the best chances by channelling our resources into them."

The centre provides support to 300 young carers across the districts, aged from five to 17.

Chairman of South and Vale Carers' trustees, Lesley Legge, said: "We are confident that we can build on our current work with young carers, offering them opportunities to develop their social skills, increase their self-confidence and have time away from their caring responsibilities."

The service relies on support from the Vale of White Horse and South Oxfordshire district councils, which will continue to provide funding.

Vale council leader Cllr Matthew Barber said: "South and Vale Carers do great work in providing valuable support for many families across the two districts. It would have been a difficult decision to end their support for adult carers."

Cllr John Cotton, leader of South Oxfordshire council, said: "This really highlights the challenges we face with social care and is one of the reasons why we are asking the Government to create unitary authorities in Oxfordshire.

"It would create significant efficiencies and savings and we could invest this money in important services such as those provided by South and Vale Carers."

The South and Vale councils are backing a proposal to replace the county's four district councils, Oxford City Council and the county council with four unitary authorities - Cherwell and South Northampton, West Oxfordshire and Cotswolds, Oxford City Council and South and the Vale.

The format would provide the councils with greater funding and management of key services, such as adult social care.

The county council is against the plans, preferring to receive more devolved powers from central Government as one unitary authority for the council.

Earlier this month, the four district councils and the city council applied to the Government to set up the new unitary authorities.

Worker burnt

BICESTER: A man was taken to hospital after being burnt by hot thermoplastic while painting lines on Launton Road on Sunday.

The man was taken to hospital after a car is believed to have hit the lining barrow.

A spokesperson for Oxfordshire County Council Highways, Paul Smith, said: "The injured person was taken to hospital where they received treatment.

"They have now been discharged and are expected to make a fully recovery."

Electric taxi first

OXON: Oxfordshire's first electric taxi has taken to the streets in Abingdon and Didcot.

Go Green Taxis took on board their first Nissan Leaf earlier this week and the fleet is set to grow over the coming weeks.

A single charge can see a Leaf travel up to 155 miles and costs travellers no extra for the fare.

Go Green set up a new base in Abingdon in January this year and has its headquarters in Didcot.

First rubble to be moved in search for trapped power station workers

RESCUERS and equipment arrived at Didcot Power Station yesterday ready to search through the rubble of a collapsed building to find three missing men this weekend.

The Health and Safety Executive (HSE) has now approved a rescue plan by site owners RWE to begin a proper search at the site, 23 days after one man died and three were buried when part of the main building collapsed.

A joint statement from the HSE and Thames Valley Police issued yesterday said: "Starting today, large equipment and people will be arriving on site to start work to enable the recovery operation to resume at the weekend, sooner if possible.

"Our priority remains the recovery of the missing men so they can be returned to their families and to understand what caused this incident.

"Specialist officers from Thames Valley Police continue to support the families and are providing them with regular updates on the progress of this work."

Part of the boiler room at the coal-fired plant collapsed last month as workers were on site decommissioning the station, which stopped running in March 2013. Five other men were also injured but have since left hospital, while 47 were treated for dust inhalation. The families of the missing three gathered at the site on Sunday to call on emergency services to do more to recover their loved ones from the wreckage. Gail Cresswell's husband Ken, 57, is still missing. Mrs Cresswell said: "It's disgusting.

"We're down here today because nobody will listen to us.

"These men of ours have been trapped in here for three weeks on Tuesday and nobody has done a thing to help them."

Last week, police named the missing men as Mr Cresswell and John Shaw, 61, both from Rotherham, and Christopher Huxtable, 34, from Swansea.

Hundreds show passion to watch story of Jesus

By Alex Ballinger

MORE than 1,000 people took to the streets of Abingdon on Sunday to watch as 200 performers told the story of Jesus Christ's resurrection in the town's second passion play.

The community theatre production saw local amateur actors join forces with adult and schoolchildren choirs for the performance in Market Place.

Passion plays, which date back hundreds of years, are becoming increasingly popular with performances staged across the country depicting the final days of Jesus between the Last Supper and his death and resurrection.

The show's director, Sam Pullen-Campbell, who is a former head of drama at Radley College, said: "It went wonderfully well. So many people came.

"You don't know the effect it has on people, so it's slightly hard to quantify its success, but we've got some really good feedback."

The first Abingdon Passion Play in 2013 saw about 1,200 people watch the performance at Abbey Gardens in below-freezing temperatures.

This year, two shows were held at 11am and 3pm as the 54-strong cast and 180 singers both young and old turned Market Place into Jerusalem and High Street was closed to traffic.

Ms Pullen-Campbell, who also directed the previous play, added: "It was lovely. I'm absolutely sure it will happen again."

Jesus was played by Abingdon resident Alex Winterburn, 33, who was seen to be crucified by Roman soldiers on stage outside the County Hall Museum.

Performers co-ordinator and narrator, Julie Kemp-Harper, said: "He was the right choice. He was a real encouragement to the rest of the cast.

"It's been lovely to see different members of the cast and choir grow in confidence."

The cast, production team and choir met on Monday evening to celebrate the show's success at The Crown and Thistle in Bridge Street and performed the show's final musical number.

Music for the production was composed by Heidi Cottrell, who studied music at Oxford and lives in Abingdon.

Abingdon hit by rise in anti-social acts

• From front page

"It's not possible to know the exact detail of what lies behind these figures but it's likely that increased reporting reflects a gradual increase in sexual violence survivors' willingness to go through the criminal justice process."

Abingdon also had the highest number of anti-social behaviour incidents reported to police in the Vale between October 1 and December 31, 2015. The town had just under 140 reported cases, while Didcot saw just under 120. Faringdon was the lowest in the Vale area with about 20 cases reported.

South and Vale Local Police Area Commander Rory Freeman said: "[Abingdon] has a greater population so it is likely to generate a higher proportion of reports. We are recording more domestic abuse incidents and rapes than in previous years and we believe this is due to increased public confidence in reporting offences. I remain confident that Thames Valley Police and our partners continue to work tirelessly and effectively to tackle and prevent crime."

The case study of domestic violence told of a woman who contacted the Oxfordshire Domestic Abuse Outreach Service in May 2015 after being abused by her husband. She had suffered years of physical, mental and emotional abuse from her husband. The service put her in contact with organisations in London and she was said to be more positive as her support continued.

A34 crash fall welcomed

THE number of collisions along the A34 in Oxfordshire dropped last year for the first time in four years.

A total of 272 reported collisions on the stretch occurred in 2015, a drop of 12 per cent from the previous year - with the figure rising year upon year from 2011 to 2014.

The information, compiled by a Freedom of Information request into Thames Valley Police, also revealed that there was one death after a crash on the stretch of road last year with two confirmed deaths on the road occurring the year before.

The fatality occurred in a five-vehicle crash near Weston-on-the-Green northbound when a woman in her 70s, from Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire, was driving a Nissan Note, which left the road after a collision with a truck and three cars.

Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood, who has campaigned to secure funding to tackle congestion and improve safety on the road, said: "It is, of course, welcome news that the number of serious incidences have gone down along the A34 route, although the total number remains high.

"As commuters and businesses know all too well, accidents on the A34 can spiral out of control often leading to delays and closures."

By Loughlan Campbell

Ms Blackwood helped to secure £50 million funding to improve the Botley and Pear Tree interchanges and to turn Abingdon's Lodge Hill junction into a diamond interchange.

The funding was announced in December 2014 and work has yet to begin, but it is due to start by 2020.

Ms Blackwood added: "I will not let the pressure drop here, and will continue to push for more improvements."

According to police, the Wendlebury Junction on the A34 from the M40 on to the dual carriageway was the section with the highest number of reported injury collisions.

Serious crashes were still common place on the stretch of road last year with a van and a lorry colliding on the A34 northbound near Abingdon in June and drivers and passengers had a lucky escape in October in a four-car crash between Bletchingdon and Weston-on-the-Green in October.

Police recorded that nine people suffered serious injuries from crashes on the road last year, a drop of five from 14 in 2014 and a drop of ten from 2013 when 19 people suffered serious injuries.

Supt Henry Parsons, from Thames Valley Police's joint road policing unit said: "We're really pleased with the fall in the overall number of reported collisions."

Stuart Miller, spokesperson for Highways England who maintain the road, said: "Safety is our top priority so we welcome the figures showing a reduction in road traffic collisions on the A34 in Oxfordshire."

Channel challenge tackled for charity

• Emma Gibbard in training

A CURBRIDGE mum-of-two is well into her preparation for a 'life changing' swimming challenge when she attempts to cross the English Channel for charity later this year.

Emma Gibbard has been training five nights a week after deciding to take on the epic adventure last March ahead of the main event in September this year.

The 42-year-old works as a receptionist at Rosebank Care Home in Bampton and is raising money for the Alzheimer's Society which offers care and support to dementia sufferers.

Mrs Gibbard said: "It's life changing. I'm giving myself the best change. It's more mental than physical."

The 21-mile swim will take place on September 23 when Mrs Gibbard will be accompanied by a support team of close friends making the journey on a boat.

Her training consists of swims at pools in Carterton, Abingdon and Witney and at Queensford Lake in Dorchester.

She added: "It's going really really well. I'm trying to get as much time in the pool as I can."

So far, a total of £700 has been raised for the Alzheimer's Society after a quiz night was held at The New Inn in Corn Street, Witney on Sunday gathered £335.

To donate and help Mrs Gibbard reach her £1,000 target visit www.justgiving.com/egchannelswim.

Woman robbed

OXFORD: A 21-year-old woman had her phone stolen in a robbery in Cowley on Saturday evening.

The victim was approached in the car park of Templars Square retail park by another woman at about 5.25pm who grabbed her phone and kicked her before running away.

A member of the public chased the robber and managed to recover the phone.

Police want to trace a black woman, about 5ft 4in tall, of slim build, wearing a dark-green jacket over a blue hodded top and black jogging bottoms and a red rucksack and carrying a football.

Audi stolen

Hunting arrests

BAMPTON: Four men have been arrested in West Oxfordshire on suspicion of hunting offences. A 50-year-old, a 24-year old and a 22-year-old from Wokingham in Berkshire were arrested along with a 33-year-old from Bampton on Sunday on suspicion of daytime trespass in pursuit of game- poaching.

The four men were bailed until April 4.

Gates damaged

BICESTER: CCTV images have been released of a man who is suspected of damaging gates at a road-sweeping company at the end of last year.

At about 4.50pm on Sunday, December 27, an offender gained access to Bicester Sweepers on the A4421 near Fringford, but when he attempted to leave found the gates were locked. He forced the gates and damaged them.

Residents air views on Bicester's future

By Jayne Smith

HUNDREDS of people had their say over how Bicester "Garden Town" should grow in the future.

Cherwell District Council hosted a three-day consultation asking residents and businesses for their aspirations.

And more than 500 people added their ideas on how the town should develop.

Bicester was awarded Garden Town status by the Government in 2014, which the council said represented a 'major vote of confidence in the town's potential'.

People were asked what they liked about Bicester, how the town could be improved and how they would like it to look in ten years' time.

Early indications showed people wanted improved infrastructure, a stronger town centre and better leisure facilities.

Council leader Barry Wood said: "We are in the process of collecting all of the feedback - including that which was submitted online and through social media - to analyse the responses and see which of the issues we can work through as a priority. As a Garden Town, Bicester has the opportunity to access funding that it did not have previously and we want to maximise this.

"We all know Bicester is growing but this event was to look at what else is needed alongside the houses to make the town a thriving place for people to live, work and relax.

"Rather than second guessing the needs of people in Bicester, this event was an opportunity for those people to come and tell us directly what they want, so we can work together to make the town the best it can be for everyone."

The results will feed into a Bicester Masterplan, a blueprint of how Bicester could develop over the next 30 years.

The master plan was unveiled in 2012 and was created to run hand-in-hand with the Cherwell Local Plan. Ideas included splitting the town centre into different quarters, creating areas such as civic and cultural, retail, and education and leisure, and transforming Pingle Field into a new park.

The consultation results will be published on the website: growingbicester.co.uk

• Barry Wood, Cherwell's leader, said the event was a chance for people to help shape the town's future

Wrestlers set for slam-down fun in town

A BICESTER sports centre is set to be transformed into a wrestling arena for one night.

Bicester Leisure Centre, Queens Avenue, will play host to 'live American wrestling' and its 'high-flying action'.

Taking place on Saturday, March 19, from 7.30pm, there will be two hours of live entertainment with the proceeds going to anti-bullying charity Kidscape.

The show will feature the former WWE NXT superstar Oliver Grey against Big Grizzly Jones, who stands 6ft 7in tall and weighs 26st.

Also making an appearance will be Bicester's Crazy Chris Walker, also a stand-up comedian known as Mr Entertainment, Italian ladies' man Antonio De Luca and high-flying Charlie Garrett.

Promoter Alan Ravenhill said of the event's beneficiary Kidscape: "We hold this charity close to our hearts as our main fan base are children between the age of six and 16, so we hope that by raising awareness, as well as money for this great charity, may help more children in the future."

Tickets cost from £9 and are available at the leisure centre or call 01869 253914. For more information, view welshwrestling.com

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Oxfordshire area from their local depots and manager James Miller agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Man seriously burnt in estate alleyway attack

By Loughlan Campbell

A MAN sustained serious burns in Barton on Saturday after a burning substance was thrown over him by an assailant.

Police put additional patrols into the Barton area after the 36-year-old man was hit by the substance, believed to be a strong alkaline, in an alleyway between Cranley Road and Bayswater Road at 8.45pm.

The victim said he felt a burning sensation as the substance made contact with his neck and torso. It is believed the offender might have also been burned by the substance and he could seek medical attention.

Detective Inspector Jim Holmes, from Oxford Force CID, said: "It is likely the offender may have also come into contact with the chemical used and may have severe burn injuries which require medical treatment.

"We are carrying out forensic testing to identify the substance used. Early tests indicate the substance was a strong alkaline."

The victim was taken to the John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford, and was later transferred to Stoke Mandeville Hospital in Aylesbury. His burns require ongoing treatment in hospital, according to Thames Valley Police.

Supt Christian Bunt, LPA Commander for Oxford, said: "This is a highly unusual and isolated incident. However, we understand the community may be concerned as a result and, therefore, there will be additional neighbourhood patrols in the area."

Police also said they were keen to speak to anyone who used the alleyway between 8pm and 9pm on Saturday.

Det Insp Paul Powell, also based in Oxford, said: "Detectives are making enquiries to establish the circumstances of this incident in which a man had an unknown substance thrown at him, causing him to sustain serious injuries.

"We are currently working to establish what this substance is and to locate the offender."

Anyone with information can call police on 101 or contact independent charity Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Trio jailed over £80,000 robberies

THREE men have been jailed for a total of 20 years for a series of robberies that saw £80,000 of cigarettes stolen, including incidents in Wheatley and Oxford.

High-powered cars were stolen and used in the targeted commercial robberies and the men were arrested after a joint police operation.

The men were sentenced at Isleworth Crown Court in London on Friday, March 4, after their arrest by the Metropolitan Police Hounslow Borough's Crime Squad. Jeffrey Galvin, 29, of Dorking Court, Hampden Lane, Tottenham, London, was sentenced to nine years in prison for conspiracy to rob, while 35-year-old Andrew Nolan, of Brookes Place, Barnet Road, Potters Bar, Hertfordshire, was jailed for four years.

Also sentenced was Gerard Galvin, 28, of Gravel Hill Way, Harwich, Essex, who was given seven years in prison.

The men usually stole BMW or Audi cars to deliver masked robbers to convenience stores or petrol stations early in the morning. Large boxes of cigarettes were stolen and loaded into the boot of the car.

The stolen cigarettes have not been recovered.

The offences took place between April 2014 and April 2015 in Oxford, Wheatley, Milton Keynes, Bracknell and Farnham Common.

The three men were arrested on April 29 last year in Hertfordshire and all pleaded guilty on March 4.

Police hunt duo

BICESTER: Police are hunting for two men after they filled up a car with petrol and drove away without paying last month.

On Wednesday, February 3, at about 11.50am the offenders drove into the service station on the A43 at Baynards Green where they filled up the car with petrol.

The vehicle had licence plates that had been stolen earlier that morning from Banbury.

Thames Valley Police released CCTV images of two suspects on Monday.

Owner wins a top honour at Crufts

A WOODSTOCK undertaker and his three-year-old dog Greta had plenty to bark about last weekend after taking home a top spot at the 125th Crufts competition in Birmingham.

The German Long Haired Pointer battled it out with 22,000 other dogs at the show and won the Best of Breed award after her mum won the same award in the past.

Greta's owner Larry Wilkes, 65, said: "It feels great. To win best of breed is amazing for all of us, but it's even more special for us because it is Greta's first time. This is the biggest event of the calendar year and I wouldn't miss it for the world."

The event was held at the Birmingham NEC and the Best in Show award was given to West Highland Terrier, Devon.

Doctor's evidence misled, it is ruled

By Alex Ballinger

A DOCTOR at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital was 'irresponsible' and 'deliberately misleading' as an expert witness in court cases relating to 'shaken baby' deaths, a medical tribunal ruled.

Dr Waney Marian Valeria Squier, a consultant neuropathologist at the hospital, faces 35 allegations relating to her giving evidence outside her area of expertise in six cases.

The Medical Practitioners Tribunal Service ruled against Dr Squier, 67, in a majority of the allegations last Friday and a decision on any sanctions is set to be made by March 24.

The panel said: "You provided expert opinion evidence in which you purported to rely upon research papers set out below, whereas in fact that research did not support your opinion in the way you suggested.

"[You] failed to work within the limits of your competence.

"[You] were deliberately misleading. [You] were irresponsible." It ruled that Dr Squier gave evidence in paediatric neurosurgery, forensic medicine and post mortem pathology despite not being an expert. Dr Squier gave evidence between 2008 and 2010 into the deaths of six babies under two years old. She testified they had not been caused by inflicted injuries and the panel heard that her opinions were in contradiction to a number of experts in the field.

The panel added: "In your written and oral evidence you were dogmatic, inflexible and unreceptive to any other view.

"The furthest you were prepared to accept any criticism was to state either that you had made a typing error or that you could have been clearer in what you had said in your reports or evidence." Kaelum Neville , a spokesperson for Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, said: "The case concerned Dr Squier's work as an independent expert witness and was unrelated to her employment at the John Radcliffe Hospital. We will await the outcome of the MPTS hearing before providing further comment."

Protected frogs born at park

A GROUP of froglets dubbed 'the ultimate camouflage artists' have been born at Cotsworld Wildlife Park near Burford.

Eight Vietnamese Mossy froglets, known as the Tonkin Bug-eyed frog, have been bred at the park for the first time with several tadpoles yet to undergo metamorphosis.

• A Mossy froglet on a 20p piece

The species is listed on the International Union for Conservation of Nature's Red List of Threatened Species and are protected by the Vietnamese government, having first been discovered in 1903.

They come from mountains of Northern Vietnam and little is known about them in the wild.

Wildlife park curator Jamie Craig, said: "We treat the rearing of any amphibian to adulthood as a success. The metamorphosing stages can be very tricky and we are delighted to have had repeatable successes with our Mossy Frogs."

Easter holiday fun

NORTH OXON: The booking line is open for Easter activity hubs to entertain children over the holidays.

Sessions will run from Tuesday, March 29, to Friday, April 8, at Cooper School, Bicester, and North Oxfordshire Academy in Banbury.

Call 01295 221803.

Project funding

NORTH OXON: Cherwell District Council is to receive a share of £1.5m to develop a new low-carbon heat network project.

Grants are set to be awarded by the Department of Energy and Climate Change (DECC) to 24 local authorities.

The council will use the cash to 'further explore' using the heat generated from an incinerator in Ardley to heat homes in Bicester.

Plan for site

THAME: Town councillors in Thame are set to look at plans to redevelop Goodson's Industrial Mews, in Wellington Street.

Jack and Chris Mauger want to retain five of the commercial units, but alter four of them to provide apartments.

The proposals also include demolishing four other units and replacing them with eight houses, two maisonettes and 15 flats.

Review sought over bid to downgrade hospital

By Jayne Smith

CAMPAIGNERS want a "full independent review" of plans to downgrade Chipping Norton Community Hospital.

They have asked the Oxfordshire Joint Health Overview and Scrutiny Committee to refer the case to the Secretary of State for Health.

It came after Oxfordshire County Council agreed for beds at the hospital to be provided by care home provider the Orders of St John Care Trust rather than the NHS to save £240,000.

The hospital looks after patients who no longer need to be in an acute hospital, but are not yet fit enough to go home.

Clive Hill, of Chipping Norton Hospital Action Group, said documents it had obtained from the council under the Freedom of Information Act raised 'some serious questions' over the process it took to change care provider.

Mr Hill said: "For example, why does OCC deny our hospital is a community hospital and why was the sub-acute specification for our beds downgraded with no public consultation.

"We are making no allegations against OCC or any of its officers but we feel the documents we have obtained under the freedom of information requests show there are some serious questions to be answered.

"We believe by far the best way to get at the whole story behind what has happened and why is to have the case called in by the Secretary of State for a full and independent review and we hope that OCC will not oppose our request."

Oxfordshire County Council said the changeover of services was due to go ahead on April 1.

It declined to comment on the group's call for the matter to be referred to the Department for Health.

Previously, Cllr Judith Heathcoat, cabinet member for adult social care, said: "This proposal would enable us to keep the same high standard of care that patients receive now at a lower cost."

The services currently cost £966,482 and would be reduced to 728,600 a year.

Towns need firefighter recruits

TEN new recruits are needed to help man fire stations at Chipping Norton, Woodstock and Charlbury.

A call has gone out for men or women, aged between 18 and 55, to sign up as for the part-time, retained team on call in the towns.

• Station commander Chris Wilson is looking for 10 new firefighter recruits

The recruits would need to live or work within five minutes of the stations, be available for training on Wednesday evenings and would get paid up to £300 a month.

People just need a reasonable level of fitness and education.

Station Commander for Chipping Norton, Charlbury and Woodstock, Chris Wilson, said the role was exciting, challenging and rewarding.

He said: "Hundreds of people have served the town (Chipping Norton) as firefighters over the station's 150-year history; it needs someone else to step forward for the coming years and that could be you.

"Towns across the county all have fire engines provided by the fire service but always need crew members from the local community.

"Unfortunately, the current crew has been reduced lately through people moving house or through staff changing their primary jobs, making it too difficult for them to respond or being too far away from the station."

He said on average crews in Chipping Norton were called out twice a week to deal with fires, car crashes and flooding incidents.

The current team include engineers, factory workers, a draughtsman, a shop salesman, a trade merchant, a mechanic and a stay-at-home parent.

For more information about the opportunities, contact Stn Cdr Wilson on 07747 472670 or email chris.wilson@oxfordshire.gov.uk or drop into the Chipping Norton station on a Wednesday evening at 6.30pm.

• Stn Cdr Wilson is also appealing for any retired firefighters who have old photographs of colleagues and incidents to get in touch.

Opening day set for new primary

By Loughlan Campbell

THE second primary school for Didcot's Great Western Park housing estate is set to open in September 2018, it has been revealed.

Chalkhill Primary School will offer 420 places to children on the estate, with the facility expected to be built south of the B4493, opposite the technical college UTC Oxfordshire which opened last September.

The school will join GEMS Didcot Primary Academy, which is expected to open on eastern edge of the estate's district centre this September, and Aureus School, which is a 1,200-space academy for 11- to 16-year-olds, which will open next September.

GLF Schools multi-academy trust, which will also run Aureus School, are behind the plans for the new school which will start in 2018 with 60 pupils in reception before expanding each year onwards.

Sarah Lynagh, a spokesperson for GLF Schools, said that the school would have 15 teachers on its staff when it reaches full capacity.

She said: "At present, the proposals are to grow the school year on year from reception up until Year Six, however this is subject to further consultation with Oxfordshire County Council (OCC)."

The school would also have a provision for a nursery on the site in September 2018.

Ms Lynagh added: "We are currently working with OCC to finalise the school's specific brief for the principle design consultant to work to.

"We do not have any designs at the present time but we have architects on board to produce a generic brief for the school and from that we will get their first designs later this year."

Chalkhill Primary and Aureus School will work closely together, according to GLF, with the former likely to become a feeder school for its secondary-level counterpart.

In regards to the new schools, county councillor for Didcot, Nick Hards, said: "I very much welcome new schools to Didcot as I have concerns that we will be hit by potential shortfall for places for kids in Didcot in the coming years.

"They need to really get on with it otherwise there will be too many kids at Great Western Park but not enough school places for them to use."

Planning permission for Aureus School was granted last year, with construction of the new school commencing last December.

The school, which is being built by the county council near the UTC Oxfordshire, is expected to be completed by May 2017.

The GLF Schools trust plans to host a number of consultation events from June to October this year at Didcot Civic Hall off Broadway ahead of the school's opening date.

• Construction work on the Aureus School site last month

Phone scam halted

BICESTER: Police are warning people to be on their guard after a Bicester resident almost lost £2,700 to a telephone fraudster.

The offender contacted the victim claiming to be from Talk Talk, duping them into sending cash via a Post Office moneygram.

But a Post Office assistant spotted it was a scam before any payment was made.

Workshop invite

THAME: Residents are invited to take part in a workshop looking at vibrancy and vitality in Thame.

Hosted by Thame Town Council in partnership with Miller Research UK, it will look at the town's future and how it should develop.

The event takes place on Tuesday, March 22, at 6.30pm, as part of the annual town meeting. Visitsurveymonkey.co.uk/r/Thame.

Seatbelt campaign

OXON: Drivers who fail to wear their seatbelts will be targeted in a campaign by Thames Valley Police this week.

Police officers will be carrying out random checks throughout Oxfordshire both day and night.

Drivers and passengers caught not wearing a seatbelt will be issued with a fixed penalty notice or a summons to attend court.

Aldi given go-ahead for new city supermarket

By Loughlan Campbell

GERMAN retailer Aldi's plans for a supermarket off Horspath Driftway in Oxford have been approved by council bosses.

The store, which will see the conversion of a Currys store on the site just off the eastern bypass, will create up to 50 jobs.

It will the company's second store in the city after its supermarket in Botley Road was opened in 2009.

Oxford City Council approved the plans on February 26 after an application was submitted in December. The Horspath Driftway site is also home to a Homebase store.

Pat Kennedy, city councillor for Lye Valley, said: "Residents in my ward are excited about the idea of having a new Aldi on that site.

"There are, of course, concerns with traffic congestion there as it will be just off the A40 Eastern-Bypass with the store just off a very busy junction."

• A typical Aldi store

Lye Valley residents' current closest supermarkets are Sainsbury's store at Temple Cowley, Sainsbury's superstore off Heyford Hill roundabout and Tesco at Oxford Retail Park.

Cllr Kennedy was pleased the new store would offer residents more choice, saying: "It opens up another opportunity for people in the area as there will be a budget store within walking distance for a lot of them."

She said residents had spoken in favour of the company's stores and had received leaflets in the post advertising jobs at the new store.

An Aldi spokesperson said: "We are looking forward to opening our new Oxford store.

"Now that planning consent has been granted, we are finalising plans to start work and hope to be open as soon as possible, creating new jobs and making it easy for local residents to shop and save closer to home. We encourage local people to apply."

Man jailed for stabbing attack

• Sam Muiruri, of Blackburn Close, Oxford

A MAN has been jailed for six years for stabbing another man five times in an Oxford park.

Sam Muiruri, of Blackburn Close, Headington, Oxford, was sentenced at Oxford Crown Court for attacking a man in his 20s in South Park on April 21 last year.

Muiruri, 24, was handed the jail term on March 3 after pleading guilty to wounding with intent.

He was also sentenced to one year in prison, to run concurrently, for carrying a blade in a public place.

Investigating officer, Det Con Charlotte Oliver. of Oxford Force CID, said: "This was a violent crime against the victim but also very frightening for members of the public who were in the park when it happened."

She added: "Violence like this will not be tolerated."

Muiruri was arrested on the day of the stabbing and charged the next day.

Firefighters in call-out to save two men from river

TWO men were rescued from a swollen River Cherwell in Oxford on Friday.

Shortly after 2pm, Oxfordshire County Council's Fire and Rescue Service was called to reports of two adults who had fallen into the river.

The Rewley Road and Slade crews were assisted by a member of the public who showed them where the two men had been last seen.

The firefighters discovered one of them had fallen from a canoe and had scrambled to the bank, while the second was stranded in the canoe.

Using throwing lines from a specialist water rescue team from the Kidlington station, the fire crew got both men out of the water. They were seen by ambulance personnel.

Station manager Paul Molloy said: "After heavy rainfall early in the week, the rivers around Oxford are currently in full flood as the water moves downstream.

"There could be many unseen hazards lying under the water. If you were to accidentally fall in you could easily become washed away or trapped."

Thieves take car

OXFORD: A silver Vauxhall Corsa was stolen after burglars broke into a property in Hollow Way, Oxford, last week.

The offenders gained entry to the property via an insecure rear patio door between 7pm last Wednesday and 1.30pm last Thursday.

A set of car keys were taken and the Corsa stolen from the driveway. Call 101 with any information.

Robots operate

OXON: Robots will be used to operate on people's eyes in trials run by Oxford University.

A deal was signed with Dutch medical robotics firm Preceyes to test a robotic surgical system.

A team led by eye surgeon and researcher Professor Robert MacLaren will run human clinical trials focusing on high-precision vitreoretinal surgery at the back of the eye.

Town election

OXON: A by-election has been triggered on Chipping Norton Town Council after councillor Richard Benfield stepped down.

Nominations are being sought to replace Mr Benfield, who was also deputy mayor. If more than one person stands, an election will take place by June 2.

Former head convicted of sexually abusing girls

By Loughlan Campbell

A FORMER headteacher of an Oxfordshire primary school has been convicted of sexually assaulting two schoolgirls.

Christopher Field, of Green Lane, Chieveley, who previously taught at Woodcote Primary School, was found guilty by a jury at Oxford Crown Court on Thursday on two counts of sexual assault of touching a girl under the age of 13 after a 13-day trial.

The 47-year-old was also found guilty of making indecent images of a child, with 13 videos discovered on his computer.

The jury, which consisted of eight men and four women, was unable to reach a verdict on one count of sexual assault and one count of causing or inciting a girl under the age of 13 to engage in sexual activity.

The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) has until tomorrow to decide if the remaining counts will be the subject of a retrial.

Det Con Sarah Berry, of the Child Abuse Investigation Unit, said: "This was a difficult case where two young girls, who did not understand what was happening at the time, were groomed and abused.

"They have shown great courage in coming forward. Both have been consistent and shown great determination in giving their evidence at court.

"I am sad for them that Field did not admit his guilt and thereby could have spared them the pain of reliving the ordeal in court."

The offences took place between September 2010 and November 2011 and involved the two victims in Oxfordshire while Field was a headteacher.

Field was arrested in September 2014 and he was charged with the offences last May.

A friend of one of the victims told the jury the girl had confided in her over a year after leaving the school and that she had been left 'borderline suicidal' as a result of the abuse.

She told the court: "She mentioned him taking her to his office during lunch and break times. She just mentioned it was inappropriate but she did not think it was wrong.

"She was being told to do things. He called her special."

Another friend of the same victim told the jury the girl had contacted her via Facebook, saying: "He was doing terrible things to me.

"I never said anything because it was difficult and I did not think anyone would believe me and it took a long time before I understood that it was wrong."

Field has been bailed until tomorrow when the hearing will take place at the same court.

Landlord told to pay £10,000 over house in disrepair

A ROGUE Oxford landlord was ordered to pay £10,500 after it was found that ten people - including a young mother and her seven-week-old baby - were living in a five-bed house off Cowley Road.

Khadam Hussain, of Cowley Road, Oxford, was found guilty of operating the unlicensed and poorly-managed house in multiple occupation (HMO) at Oxford Magistrates Court on February 26.

The house was found to be in a state of disrepair, with Oxford City Council officers discovering a rotten bath panel in the bathroom, an insecure back door and a greasy kitchen in an inspection in March last year.

Mr Hussain had initially pleaded not guilty to the charges at an earlier hearing, but changed his plea to guilty on February 26.

He was fined £4,000 for failing to license the HMO, a further £4,000 for failing to maintain the property to standards required under HMO law and was also ordered to pay costs of £2,500 to the council and perform 250 hours of community service.

Council leader Bob Price said the 'dreadful' conditions could not be tolerated.

Driver sentenced to five years' jail after fatal crash

By Loughlan Campbell

A DRIVER was sentenced to five years in prison after a 43-year-old woman passenger died when he crashed into a tree near Sutton Courtenay last July while over the alcohol limit.

David Farnell, 28, of no fixed abode, was sentenced at Oxford Crown Court on Friday, March 4, for one count of causing death whilst driving without due care and attention whilst over the prescribed limit for alcohol and one count of causing death whilst driving uninsured.

Farnell lost control of the uninsured Silver Mitsubishi L200 he was driving on the B4016 Drayton Road on July 27, resulting in the death of his passenger Claire Caldwell, 43, of Fyfield Wick, who died at the scene.

He had been due to appear Oxford Crown Court on January 8 for a hearing, but he did not show up. He was then caught in Bicester on January 22 after police issued a public appeal.

Investigating officer Sgt Beth Walton, of Thames Valley Police's serious collision investigation unit, said: "This was a collision in which a woman has needlessly lost her life. Our thoughts are with her family and hope that this may bring some closure to them.

"It is clear that Farnell's ability to drive was affected by alcohol and it's highly likely that had he not got behind the wheel whilst under the influence, no one would have died."

Farnell, who was arrested last August and charged on November 4, was also disqualified from driving for five years.

Sgt Walton said she hoped the case would stop people 'considering this reckless practice', adding that drinking alcohol and driving 'often leads to terrible consequences'.

An inquest into Ms Caldwell's death was opened in August and Oxfordshire coroner Darren Salter said at the time: "The vehicle appears to have travelled across the carriageway and collided with a tree."

The car was heading towards Sutton Courtenay just after 3.10pm and Ms Caldwell was confirmed dead at 3.35pm.

Hydro plan backed

GORING: Councillors gave the go-ahead to controversial plans for a £1.5 million hydroelectric power plant at Goring weir on Thursday night.

South Oxfordshire District Council's planning committee approved the scheme that will see part of the weir at Goring Lock demolished and replaced by three 12ft-wide Archimedes screws off the western bank of Goring Lock island.

It is believed the plant will be capable of generating enough power for 300 homes annually.

'In' vote urged

OXON: Prime Minister and Witney MP David Cameron took to the air waves to urge Oxfordshire voters to stay in the European Union (EU) during a radio interview on Thursday.

Mr Cameron spoke on BBC Radio Oxford about the influence Oxford University carried due to being partly funded by the EU and reaffirmed his commitment to stand for his Witney seat again in the 2020 parliamentary election.

He also backed a unitary authority plan for his constituency that would see the operations of West the Oxfordshire and Cotsworld district councils merged.

Vehicle thefts

VALE: Car windows were smashed as three vehicles were broken into in a spate of thefts in North Hinksey, Botley and Wootton Village earlier this month.

Between 5pm on Sunday, March 5, and 1pm on Monday, a vehicle in North Hinksey Lane in North Hinksey was broken into, with offenders smashing a rear window to steal a bag containing sports clothing.

An Apple iPad was stolen the same day between 11.30pm and 4pm after offenders gained entry to a car in West Way, Botley.

The following day, a laptop and a handbag was stolen after offenders smashed a window in Wootton Village the following day between 7.30am and 8am.

Ronson tops the bill for this year's Big Feastival

A HEADLINE DJ set from Mark Ronson was the top billing as the star-studded line-up for this year's Big Feastival at Kingham, near Chipping Norton, on the August Bank Holiday weekend was announced.

The 'Uptown Funk' star leads a line-up that also features Leeds rockers Kaiser Chiefs, former X Factor star Ella Henderson, dance artist DJ Fresh and Grammy Award-winning pop artist Foxes.

Serving up some gastronomic delights will be co-host Jamie Oliver and Michelin star superstars Raymond Blanc and Tom Kerridge. Best-selling author Gizzi Erskine will also dishing up some grub.

Celebrity chef Oliver said during Thursday's announcement: "The Big Feastival is one of my favourite weekends of the year. No other festival combines amazing music and incredible food in such a unique way and this year's stellar line-up makes it unmissable."

The festival will be held at co-host and Blur bassist Alex James' farm just south of Chipping Norton.

He added: "Each year the festival just gets better with 2016 marking our fifth birthday on the farm; it promises to be the best year yet."

In addition to the live music and food, the festival will provide a 'healthy living zone' where festival-goers can re-charge their batteries, enjoy food and drink master classes and attend cookery schools.

Tickets for this year's event which takes place from August 26-28 are on sale at thebigfeastival.com

WIN Allegiant movie goodies!

THE third installment of the blockbuster Divergent series franchise, ALLEGIANT takes Tris [Shailene Woodley] and Four [Theo James] into a new world, far more dangerous than ever before.

We first met them in DIVERGENT, the first volume of Veronica Roth's trilogy, where we got our introduction to the fractured society they lived in.

After the earth-shattering revelations of INSURGENT, Tris must escape with Four and go beyond the wall enclosing Chicago. For the first time ever, they will leave the only city and family they have ever known. Once outside, old discoveries are quickly rendered meaningless with the revelation of shocking new truths. Tris and Four must quickly decide who they can trust as a ruthless battle ignites beyond the walls of Chicago which threatens all of humanity. In order to survive, Tris will be forced to make impossible choices about courage, allegiance, sacrifice and love.

ALLEGIANT is in cinemas now.

Closing date: Friday, April 1

Win goodies!

To make your Allegiant experience even greater we have some seriously great Allegiant branded goodies. Six lucky entrants will receive a pack containing: branded sleeveless hooded sweat top, branded shoulder bag, branded pen, branded notebook and a branded arm-strap phone holder.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

PERSONALISED LIVE-IN CARE

Caremark offers a specialised care service for people who need support with day-to-day life but want to stay in their own home. Caremark's live-in care service enables you to remain as independent as possible, whilst being fully supported by a full time live-in Care Worker.

Care at home

You will have choice and control over your life. You can live in familiar surroundings with family, friends, your own possessions, furniture and pets too!

We will agree a personal support plan with you, detailing what kind of care and support you need, including your preferences. You'll enjoy one-to-one support from a fully trained Care Worker. Youll be able to relax, knowing that there is someone there for you seven days a week, to help with your housework, personal care and shopping or simply to provide good company.

Your satisfaction and happiness are vital to us

We will match your Care Workers to your needs. We will regularly monitor and review your satisfaction to make sure you always receive the highest standard of care.

Please call us on 01993810918

Touching tale of war days

THE touching children's story 'Goodnight Mister Tom' will be coming to the New Theatre, Oxford, from Tuesday, March 22, to Saturday, March 26.

By James Richings

Written by award-winning author Michelle Magorian and adapted for the stage by David Wood, the novel is set during the build-up to the Second World War and tells the story of young boy William Beech.

Badly treated by his mother, William is sent to live with Tom Oakley, an elderly widower, who lives in the countryside and is isolated and short-tempered.

However, after Mister Tom - this is how William addresses his elderly counterpart - learns about William's ordeal at home, he becomes a soft-hearted individual who looks after his youngster

Actor David Troughton, who plays Mister Tom, said: "When the book came out in 1981, my wife and I both read it to our children, and we all loved it immediately.

"It's become a classic and rightly so – it's beautifully written, very succinct, and just a great story. I then saw John Thaw in the film version and thought I'd love to play the part."

"It really appealed to me. The idea of a man who is denying in himself the ability to live life once death has happened. It's so sad that he just cuts himself off.

"And the rejuvenation that occurs when the boy arrives in his life is so heartening - they save each other."

The novel became a huge hit with families in the 1980s, winning four different book awards in 1982.

The story has since been adapted into a feature-length film and a stage production, with the latter being nominated for a Laurence Olivier Award in 2013 for 'Best Entertainment'.

Troughton believes the priceless reactions of the audience's faces is down to the skill of writer Wood, who studied at Worcester College, Oxford.

"As the lights go down at the end, you see a sea of children's faces stunned with amazement and their parents holding their handkerchiefs," he said.

"The children get really wrapped up in the story, largely because of the way we tell it.

"It's very simple, with minimal set, and a brilliant ensemble company. It's quite filmic in the way the story rolls along, and it really seems to capture the imagination of the audience."

Eight performances will take place during the five-day run and tickets cost from £12.50 to £31.40.

The Zoots hit town

Revival of 1960s classic hits from The Beatles comes to The Beacon

RESIDENTS from Wantage and beyond will be able to relive the glory days of the 1960s when The Zoots arrive at The Beacon on Friday, March 25.

By James Richings

The five-piece group, who are currently on a nationwide tour across the UK, arrive at the Portway venue to perform tracks by popular artists such as The Beatles, Otis Reading and Frankie Valli among many others.

Formed seven years ago, the group of professional musicians will be aiming to send the audience home happy.

Lead singer and guitarist Jamie Goddard told the Guardian: "One of the best things about performing is that feeling, that atmosphere, that sense that we are all having a great time together.

"Music really does bring people together and it's so wonderful to think 'We did that'.

"You can really pick up on the energy of the audience. It's exhilarating, that's the only way to describe it and it's why we do what we do."

Making up the band as well as Goddard, are Ben Jones (lead guitar and vocals), Simon Small (drums and backing vocals), Harriet Lowther (percussionist and vocals) and Dan Gill (bassist) and their speciality is not just performing hits from the swinging Sixties.

On their tour, The Zoots specifically perform hits from a certain decade in each of their shows, ranging from the swing of the 1950s to the techno of the 2000s.

Goddard said: "It's good to keep the shows varied."

The band has previously performed at the Wantage venue.

And Goddard, who described their previous show as 'brilliant', is hoping history repeats itself this time around.

"The atmosphere was wonderful and spirits were high as everyone was dressed to impressed in a variety of really brilliant outfits including Captain Scarlet and Yoko Ono," he said.

"And not only do we have a bigger, better show, with new songs, new outfits and new moves, but we also have a very special, very new, very large addition to our instrumentation. We'll be introducing the double bass to some songs in our set."

As well as touring in the UK, the group has performed in more than 30 countries.

Goddard explained how the band came by its name.

"The name of the band was chosen by my dad Martyn as it was a slang term he and his friends used for their suits in the late 1960s," he said.

The band's next gig is on March 27 in Surrey.

Tickets cost £12, and it starts at 8pm.

Band to perform

LIVE MUSIC: Oxford-based covers band Hustler will be performing at the O'Neill's pub in Oxford on Friday, March 18.

The five-piece group will perform hits from the likes of The Killers, Taylor Swift, U2, Daft Punk, Lenny Kravitz and Rihanna.

The free gig at the George Street venue starts at 10pm.

Comedy night

COMEDY: Four comedians will be raising laughs at the Glee Club this Saturday, March 19.

Stuart Goldsmith, Gavin Webster, Jen Brister and Bryan Lacey will be appearing at the Hythe Bridge Street venue.

Suitable for over-18s, tickets cost from £7.50 to £14.50 and doors open at 7.15pm.

Backstage tours

TOUR: The New Theatre, Oxford, will be running backstage tours for the public on Saturday, March 19, and Sunday, March 20.

The tours will allow theatre-goers to see what happens backstage at the venue on performance days.

Tickets cost from £5 to £8 and the tours start at 10.30am.

Band aims for a rocking start

WITNEY-BASED band Damn Good Reason will be aiming to get their audience joining in the singing when they visit Fat Lil's bar in Witney on Saturday, March 19.

By James Richings

Formed back in 2012, the five-piece group will be performing popular hits from the likes of ZZ Top, AC/DC, Rolling Stones and many others to help music fans in West Oxfordshire to get their weekend off to a rocking start.

Guitarist Jon Davies told the Guardian: "We all live in or around Witney, so we pretty much knew each other from the local music scene and it is our love of the same music that brought us together as a band.

"Damn Good Reason aims to be an authentic, good-time, classic rock band playing songs that the band and our audiences know and love but which exact songs would be telling - but we hope everyone will be singing along to most of them."

The gig on Friday will only be the band's fourth gig of 2016, as Jon and Byrne Norry (guitarists), Danny Dymond (bassist), Benjamin James (percussionist and lead singer) and Alex Broda (drummer) juggle their musical commitments with their day jobs.

The adrenaline and joy of performing to an audience that engages with the group is noticed on the band's social media, with Damn Good Reason accumulating almost 300 'likes' on their Facebook page.

And with the band set to perform in Witney continuously throughout the year, the group can expect to see their numbers of fans increase.

Jon said: "We really do the band for fun and for the music, but we work hard at it to make sure we're as good as we can be for the audience and between us, we're in construction, graphic design and telecoms as our day job."

He said: "I grew up seeing and hearing all the classic rock bands of the 70s live, on TV and on the radio – all of the band did.

"When you're growing up, hearing and seeing Led Zeppelin, Lynyrd Skynyrd, The Who, Free, Pink Floyd and all the other great bands of that era everywhere you go, it's hard not to want to be part of it.

"For me, next stop was getting my first guitar and I haven't stopped learning since."

The band's gig at the Corn Street venue costs £4, with the music starting at 9pm.

ROSENCRANTZ AND GUILDENSTERN ARE DEAD
Questions, confusion and comedy abound as Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, Hamlet's childhood friends, are summoned to Elsinore. Join them as they try to find their way through (and their place within) the plot of Hamlet, an offstage world and some big philosophical questions.

Commemorating 400 years since Shakespeare's death and 50 years since the play's first performance, Oxford Playhouse's 17|25 Young Company present an ensemble version of Tom Stoppard's comic masterpiece. Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead was Stoppard's debut, written when he was a student in Oxford and catapulting him into a career as one of Britain's most loved playwrights.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

Oscar Wilde's comic masterpiece is brought to the stage with an anarchic twist. It's energetic and full of all the usual coruscating Wildean wit, as well as a few surprises including singing butlers, travel by means of musical montage and a post-interval Hollywood style recap. The Pantaloons are a young, vibrant theatre company whose style draws from a wide variety of popular theatre. In their theatre, the audience's imagination is just as important as the company's, and this show allows ours to run wild(e)! What's to like Classic comedy of manners with razor-sharp dialogue.

ANNIE

Jigsaw Stage Productions are returning to the Cornerstone, Didcot, with a sparkling production of that favourite family show ... Annie, the Musical. Set in 1930s New York during the Great Depression, it tells the story of young Annie, who does not let life at Miss Hannigan's grim orphanage beat her down. Rather she never gives up hope of finding her real parents.
Her luck changes when she is chosen to spend Christmas at the residence of famous billionaire, Oliver Warbucks. Spiteful Miss Hannigan has other ideas and hatches a plan to spoil Annie's search ... The production includes such unforgettable songs as It's a Hard Knock Life, Easy Street and Tomorrow.

THE OWL WHO WAS AFRAID OF THE DARK

Based on the bestselling children's classic by Jill Tomlinson and adapted for the stage by the Blunderbus team, this delightful children's show tells the tale of Plop the baby barn owl.
Plop is exactly the same as every barn owl that has ever been - except for one thing. Plop is AFRAID of the DARK. Follow Plop's adventures as he journeys into the night-time world of campfires, fireworks, starry nights and moonlit adventures. This gentle, reassuring tale is brought to life with an irresistible blend of music, puppetry and storytelling.

Scouting out a great estate

By Anthony Yates

I KNOW what you are thinking... 'Scout', that's a funny model name for a car. Let's not over-think this. This is not a car for 'The Scouts' - that was actually 'The Scout Association' formed in about 1910 by Robert Baden-Powell, 1st Baron Baden-Powell, first Chief Scout of The Boy Scouts Association.

So why call it an Octavia 'Scout' then? Well, that's simple. It's designed to be a rough-road ready sort of car. You know the sort of thing: sump guard, engine guard, underbody stone guard and many other features that give it an ability to do some of the things most normal cars with a 4X4 setup can't do.

Engine: My test car was fitted with a 2.0 TDi 184PS unit that is perfect in every way – it pulls like a train and revs like the clappers. Marry that with a brilliant 4X4 system and a 6-speed DSG gearbox that actually works. Here are some of the figures: Combined mpg of 56.5, max speed 136mph and 0-62 time of 7.8sec.

On the road: The Octavia feels effortless into the corners and that's down to its 4X4 abilities. Road holding is the Scout's party piece, along with its ability to not get stuck in anything more than a pothole.

Inside: Skoda has always taken a hit on bland interior, but I have to say with the 'Scout' it's perfect. This is an interior that will wear well over time. Standard equipment in the 'Scout' is as follows: 17" Polar Alloys, alcantara and Leather Scout upholstery, cruise control, colour maxi-DOT trip computer, lane assist, off-road mode, rough road package and increased ground clearance of (+33mm).

Safety: Yep, 7 airbags and an array of intelligent systems to keep you safe if you ever find yourself in a difficult situation. One feature I must tell you about though is the automatic post-collision braking system (MKB). In the event of a crash, the MKB, which is standard on all Octavias, will be activated. This recognises when an impact has occurred and brakes the car to prevent it being uncontrollably propelled into oncoming traffic, reducing the risk of further crashes.

To sum up: A brilliant car for anyone who doesn't want a normal estate car.

Price: £28,200 OTR not including fitted options.

MacDonald wins praise from 'delighted' U's boss

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD UNITED winger Alex MacDonald plays the game at 'a hundred miles an hour', according to U's boss Michael Appleton, who reserved praise for the energetic starlet after the Yellows' 4-0 win over Dagenham & Redbridge on Tuesday night.

MacDonald grabbed a goal in the big win at the Kassam Stadium and was a visible threat to the Daggers all evening, repeatedly rampaging past opposing defender Joe Widdowson.

The 25-year-old's goal was in addition to a hat-trick by United star Kemar Roofe and Appleton was more than happy with his winger after the game. He told reporters: "We needed energizing after the result on Saturday and I knew that Macca would be a catalyst for other players on the night and create chances for us.

"He's a player that plays the game at a hundred miles an hour. He is what he is and he certainly put a smile on people's faces tonight. I'm delighted for him that he got his goal."

MacDonald himself insisted that it was all about securing the three points, despite scoring to make it six in total for the season. He said: "I'm happy to score but most importantly it was a massive three points for the boys.

"It's a massive result and I'm sure it will prove a massive psychological blow for the teams around us that we've snatched this win. It was a great response from the boys tonight."

The winger also praised his teammate Roofe, saying he 'deserves everything he gets' after the forward made it 25 goals for the season.

He said: "He's worked so hard and he's reaping the rewards.

"He's been tremendous all year, not just tonight, and everybody at the club knows what a fantastic player he is."

Bevans and Whichelow on target as City claim first win in ten games

GOALS from Matt Whichelow and Matty Bevans saw Oxford City record their first win in ten games on Saturday with a 2-0 victory at Margate.

Top goalscorer Bradley Bubb should have grabbed the opener after City 'keeper Laurie Walker's clearance fell to the forward but his shot flew wide of the far post.

Another long ball over the top fashioned a chance for City's Conor McDonagh, whose shot from the edge of the box ws saved by Margate 'keeper Chris Lewington.

An acrobatic volley from Bubb was well saved before Whichelow snatched the opener, firing a shot into the net off the crossbar. Kynan Isaac then went close for Oxford shooting wide from range.

The chances dried up for Oxford in the second half but Darren Pond fashioned a chance on 65 minutes, blasting a shot at Lewington, before Bevans snatched the second, drilling his shot into the net following a burst into the box on 84 minutes.

City lie ninth in the Conference South with ten games left to play.

U's raise the Roofe in big win

By Loughlan Campbell

KEMAR Roofe bagged his first hat-trick for Oxford United as the Yellows got their buzz back with a 4-0 win over lowly Dagenham & Redbridge at the Kassam Stadium on Tuesday night.

Roofe grabbed the headlines with three well-taken goals and fellow goalscorer Alex MacDonald excelled, whilst Liam Sercombe and Callum O'Dowda also impressed as Oxford kept up their promotion push.

The U's found the opener in sterling fashion after a buzzing run from MacDonald saw the ball played into Sercombe who threaded it through for Roofe to power past Daggers 'keeper Liam O'Brien.

Sercombe fired wide on 18 minutes after bursting into the penalty area before Johnny Mullins was taken to the ground after a clash of heads in the box from a Daggers corner.

O'Brien was then off his mark to block two Oxford efforts after Sercombe let fly from outside the box and the 'keeper palmed away Roofe's close range follow-up.

United continued to dominate proceedings the more the half wore on and O'Dowda fired wide of the right hand post when Roofe played the winger in after a stunning pass from Mullins.

Dagenham were lacklustre going forward and a penetrating run from Josh Dassley led to the midfielder finding space just outside the area but the end result was a tame shot for Oxford 'keeper Benji Buchel to gather.

Five minutes into the second half and it was two for United after Waring snatched the ball in the Dagenham half and played in Roofe who darted forward before slotting into the far corner past O'Brien.

However, Dagenham nearly struck back two minutes later when Oliver Hawkins skilfully worked an opportunity in the box and Buchel got down well to block the strike.

Roofe botched two chances for the hat-trick shortly afterwards before MacDonald snatched Oxford's third, turning home Danny Hylton's cross in the box.

The ex-West Brom forward finally grabbed his chance on 85 minutes coolly slotting home as Oxford maintained their grasp on second place in League Two.

Up next for Oxford is a trip down to The Hive in North London on Saturday.

Pekarik bags five

ICE HOCKEY: Ondrej Pekarik bagged five goals over the course of two nights after Oxford City Stars bested Invicta Dynamos 7-6 on Saturday before being narrowly defeated 4-5 by the Solent Devils.

Pekarik grabbed a brace over the Dynamos in the big win at Oxpens with Boris Ruzicka, Theo Bundock, Michael Whillock and Ben Ealey-Newman also grabbing the goals .

Ruzicka also grabbed the fourth in the Devils defeat with the Stars set to play their last home fixture of the season on Sunday against the Bracknell Hornets.

Final games

HOCKEY: Oxford Hockey Club's Mens' first's secured a 4-2 win over Wycombe's first's on Saturday to keep themselves above the relegation zone.

Meanwhile, the Ladies' first's were beaten 3-0 at Teddington's first's with the result meaning they lie in 8th in Division 2.

Both sides play their last game of the season on Saturday with the Men's taking on OMT's first's whilst the ladies take on London Wayfarers Ladies' first's.

Millers beaten

FOOTBALL: North Leigh fell to a 3-1 defeat at AFC Totton on Saturday despite going ahead early on through Lance Williams.

Williams' goal after four minutes was then cancelled out by goals from Nathaniel Sherborne and Nick Watts.

Saints travel to Bury for pre-season test

OXFORD Saints kick off their first of two pre-season games this weekend as they take on Bury Saints this Sunday in Thetford.

Andrew Day's side will finally be able to taste some game action after months of training after they had weekly practices from January.

Day will take a 60-strong squad to Suffolk for the encounter and the head coach couldn't hide his excitement ahead of the game.

He said: "We are so excited to be at the business end of our pre season programme. The lads have been working so hard in practice since December and another successful off season recruitment drive has seen competition for places very high.

"Bury are a big step up for us and it will be a good gauge for us to find out own level and I'm looking forward to it."

Bury had a blinder last season, storming through Division II last year to seal victory over Bristol Apache in the Rose Bowl Final last year.

The win saw the Suffolk-based side climb to Division I and head coach Chris Wallis said ahead of the game: "It's good to finally start playing games. Oxford reached the quarter-finals last year and will be a real test for us. We have a lot of new players and it will be a great experience for them."

• Jake Rawes, nine, with the Johnstone's Paint Trophy

Young winner gets peak at JPT Trophy

AN artistic youngster from Clifton Hampden Primary School has bagged four tickets to see Oxford United in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy final next month as well as casting his eyes over the famed trophy.

Jake Rawes, who attends the school in the High Street, Clifton Hampden, won the special Johnstone's Paint Trophy Final design-a-shirt competition, which was open to primary schools across Oxford.

The students were asked to submit entries in the competition of their own design of football shirt for the final.

Jake's design caught the eye of the judges and he got the chance to have a close-up view of the coveted silverware as the trophy visited his school yesterday.

Oxford coach, and former player, Andy Whing was also on hand to give the school's football team a coaching session.

Jonathan McCourt, a brand and sponsorship manager for Johnstone's Paint, said: "There was a high standard of design and clearly a lot of talented youngsters in Oxford. We hope Jake and his family enjoy a fantastic day at Wembley."

Former City star is handed ban for urinating on pitch

FORMER Oxford City forward Adi Yussuf has been banned for five games after he was found guilty of urinating at the back of a stand during a recent game.

The now-Mansfield Town striker was charged for misconduct last week by the Football Association (FA) which occurred at the Stags' defeat at Plymouth on February 13 whilst he was warming up as a substitute.

The incident was included in Brendan Malone's report and the 23-year-old later admitted the charge at an independent regulatory commission hearing.

A statement on the FA website on Friday read: "Adi Yussuf has been suspended from all domestic club football for five first-team competitive matches and fined £700 after he admitted an FA misconduct charge.

"The decision of the independent regulatory commission, which sat on Thursday 10 March, also included a warning as to the player's future conduct."

Stags' boss Adam Murray said: "We are very disappointed by the length of ban received."

However, he did add that the football club does not condone 'the isolated act' but said that Yussuf has been given guidance from a Plymouth steward and unused substitute as to where to perform the act.

The former City star previously joined the League Two hotshots last June after netting 26 goals at City last season.

Freds reduced to eight men during Winchester loss

WANTAGE Town left the field with eight men after they were dealt a 3-0 defeat by play-off hopefuls Winchester City in central Hampshire on Saturday in the Southern League Division One South & West.

Stuart Cattell's team lost Aaron Oakley early on but ended up shipping the goals courtesy of a brace from Jamie Barron and a goal from Warren Bentley.

Wantage's Matty Clark was also handed his marching orders during the contest whilst Carl Evans also had to come off the field towards the end of the game for the Freds as Stuart Cattell's side were unlucky in the tie.

Baron broke the deadlock in the 14th minute, shooting from the edge of the box past Wantage 'keeper Ed Cavanagh.

Winchester then snatched their second when Bentley scored after a corner was whipped into the box before Oakley was given his red for bringing down a City player in the box.

The resulting penalty was blocked by Cavanagh who guessed the right way and Wantage managed to carve some chances out of their own through Sam Barder and Mark Francis.

Clark was then brought on for Gio Wrona and he subsequently got himself a straight red for a dangerous tackle.

The Freds then lost Evans after he went down under a challenge and with eight men on the field Wantage conceded a third when Barron scored a third in stoppage time.

Up next for the Freds is a trip to Bridgwater Town this Saturday.

Greens strike seven to worsen United's woes

By Loughlan Campbell

ABINGDON United need a miracle to escape the relegation places in the Hellenic Premier League after they were beaten 7-0 by Kidlington FC at Yarnton Road on Tuesday night.

A hat-trick by Tommy Castle and a brace from Ryan Brooks were rounded out by goals from Jimmy Deabill and Lewis Coyle as the Greens ran riot over a humbled United squad.

The result consigns Abingdon Utd to needing to win all of their remaining three league games and for the teams above them not to take a point as the prospect of potential relegation looms large over the Northcourt.

Abingdon's goal net first bulged on 14 minutes when Coyle picked up the ball in midfield and hit a bullet of an effort from 25 yards out into the top corner.

Just three minutes later, it was two for the Greens when Castle ran down the left and crossed for Brooks to smartly volley the ball home.

The Utd players sought to find a foothold in the game, but struggled to retain possession and Brooks was denied by a challenge in the final third from a United player in a swift Kidlington attack.

Utd manager Steve Alman's men could not hold on and, in the 41st minute, Brooks grabbed his second with a stunning effort from range after snatching possession of the ball in the Utd area.

Brooks was denied a hat-trick shortly after the start of the second half before Coyle hit the near post with a shot from the right flank.

On the hour mark, it was then four for the Greens when Coyle whipped in a ball from the right for Castle to head the ball downwards into the net.

And within 60 seconds, Castle grabbed another goal, when he controlled Brooks' through ball and fired into the net.

Substitute Deabill added a sixth in the 72nd minute, tapping home after a thunderous shot from Castle was deflected into his path.

Deabill then set up Castle for his hat-trick in the 81st minute, playing the forward through to stroke home from 12 yards out.

The win condemns Abingdon to a likely exit from the league, while Kidlington marched on at the other end of the table in their Championship push.
